Send this letter to the Pope, and inform me when M. Alquicr presents it.

29th, Saint Cloud:

I have reached Paris in good health. A year ago I arranged the marriage of Prince Jerome with the Princess Catherine of Wtlrtemberg; it is to take place some time this month.

August 2d. Unless England accepts the mediation of Russia, Denmark will have to declare war against her, or I shall declare war against Denmark.

12th. (To Ohampagny.) I would like you to write a confidential letter to M, de Metternieh in some such terms as these: "What vertigo has seized people at Vienna? What enemy threatens you ? You are calling the whole population to arms; your princes heat up the country like knights errant; what would you ,say if your neighbours did the same ? Do you wish to bring on a crisis ? Knowing as we do that you have no alliance with Russia, the help of England is clearly of no service to you. The Emperor cannot understand what you are about; up to the present he has taken no military .steps. Can you inform me confidentially what it all means, and how we can prevent a crisis occurring ? "

Make your letter pleasant, guarded in terms, confidential in form ; but let them perceive clearly what will happen.

SOtlu The English disembarked near Copenhagen on the 10th. They are bombarding the city.

September 7th, Rambouillet:

(To Eugene-.) Your aide-de-camp Bataille has lost his dispatches; he deserves to be punished; place him under
